

CEHS Rosenberg Book Prize

The Central European History Society (CEHS) solicits nominations for the Hans Rosenberg Book Prize. This annual prize honors the best book in central European history published in English by permanent residents of North America. This year's award considers books with an imprint of 2018.

Central European history is understood to include all German-speaking countries as well as areas previously included within the Habsburg monarchy. The CEHS discourages submissions of reprints, second editions, multi-authored anthologies, and document publications. The award will be announced at the annual meeting of the American Historical Association in New York City on 4 January 2020.

Nominations received by 31 July 2019 will receive full consideration. Please send books to each of the following three persons:

Prof. Andrea Orzoff
History Department MSC 3H
New Mexico State University
